

Gabrielle Roy House: The cornerstone of tourism in Manitoba

Since 1995, the Gabrielle Roy House, Gabrielle Roy's childhood home on Deschambault Street, has showcased the works of the Franco-Manitoban author and encouraged French writing and artistic expression in Manitoba.

"The Gabrielle Roy House is a cornerstone of cultural tourism in Manitoba. It is also a leader in promoting French writing and artistic expression in Manitoba, and is recognized as playing a key role in the vibrant and dynamic Francophone community," says executive director Sébastien Gaillard.

But our volunteers are essential to the success of the Gabrielle Roy House! Annette Saint-Pierre, for one, fought to save the residence, helped transform it into a museum and continues to give her time. For over 20 years, our devoted volunteers have ensured the museum lives on, by opening the doors to the public, Wednesday through Saturday, and guiding visitors throughout the house, from the family room to the attic.

The Gabrielle Roy House hosts numerous events year-round. Among these events, the second edition of the Dictée Gabrielle-Roy will be held March 21, at 4:45 pm, at the Sébastien Gaillard in the attic of Maison Gabrielle-Roy where Gabrielle became aware of her destiny as a writer.

Université de Saint-Boniface, in partnership with the Alliance française du Manitoba and the Bibliothèque Gabrielle-Roy de Québec. This event will have a significant ripple effect, as it will be live-streamed in 40 Alliance française locations across Canada, the United States and Mexico.

The annual brunch fundraiser celebrating Gabrielle Roy provides a friendly atmosphere for volunteers and those who love literature to get together. This year's gathering will be held on March 24.

And for a second year in a row, the Salon du livre du Manitoba, in collaboration with Les Éditions du Blé and the Théâtre Cercle Molière, will be held on May 18. This book fair will begin with activities for kids in the morning, followed by a literary afternoon and a literary cabaret in the evening.
